

An open invitation is extended throughout Geelong to past and present Kyokushin persons to attend.

The intent of this memorial session is to train together in a non-political environment to honour Sosai Masutatsu Oyama and his legacy.

Sosai Mas Oyama Memorial Training Session

Monday 26th April 2010

to be held at Hamlyn Heights Dojo Vines Road Community Centre
commencing at 6.00pm sharp

Sosai Mas Oyama was the founder of Kyokushin Karate and died in 1994.

His teachings have inspired millions of people around the world to participate in the martial arts, therefore it is appropriate to remember this time by getting together with a spirited training session, in the manner which Sosai Oyama would have no doubt approved of if he were here today.

After the training session there will be an opportunity to relax with a BBQ / drinks and to talk all things KYOKUSHIN.

(Drinks available at reasonable prices)
